"The work is polished, athletic and professional, and enjoyable for all of those things."

Bob Hicks, Oregon Arts Watch
